

Prof. Dr. Norbert Kovacs, neurologist, and vascular neurologist, is the vice director of the Department of Neurology, University of Pécs, Hungary, and the Head of the Movement Disorders Unit. He also serves as the president of the Hungarian Parkinson's Disease Society. He received his Ph.D. and D.Sc. degrees in the field of deep brain stimulation for movement disorders.