INVITATION

FOR

WORKSHOP

FROM FUNDAMENTAL SCIENCE
TO APPLIED TRANSFER OF KNOWLEDGE AND INNOVATIONS IN BIOMEDICINE

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to participate at Workshop “From Fundamental Science to Applied Transfer of Knowledge and Innovations in Biomedicine”.

Distinguished invited speakers will share their experience and knowledge about translational research mechanisms. Funding opportunities for innovations will be presented and strategies for developing applied and innovative research will be introduced.

Emphasis of the workshop will be placed on the applied and innovative potential of fundamental research in the field of biological and medical sciences and how technologies are in support of the modern science.

Date: May 30-31, 2025

Participation fee: Free of charge

Registration includes: Access to lectures and poster sessions, coffee breaks, lunch, welcome party

Registration and abstract submission deadline: 25 May 2025

Venue: Campus 90, 90 blvd "Tsar Osvoboditel" Varna 9000, Bulgaria

Registration and abstract submission:
