

Prof. Silviya Borisova, RN, PhD, DSc

Head of the Nursing care department at
Faculty of Public Health Varna
Medical University “Prof. Paraskev Stoyanov”

She is a coordinator of “Erasmus +” project for student and lecturer mobility. She takes part at a UNICEF project for elaborating of Maternal and Child Health Centre in Shumen and Sliven counties. Silviya Borisova has been trained at 27 specialized and professional orientated courses and seminars, organized by international institutions (European Social fund, UNICEF). Her first foreign specialization is in Serbia – Training of trainers from the Central and Eastern Europe region and states of Commonwealth of Independent States, and the second specialization is within the frame of PHARE project – training of Nurses in France.

Prof. Silviya Borisova took part in 9 research and training projects, accomplished in Bulgaria by International institutions as World Bank, European Social fund, Operational Programme Human Resources Development, American red cross, Netherlands’ Fund for Regional Partnership – MATRA, United States Agency for International Development.

Her professional interests are in the field of innovation in the education of nurses and other medical professionals, good practices at the health care system; health promotion (role of the medical professional at the health education). Prof. Borisova has a rich lecturer activity. Her lectures are in the field of theoretical (Philosophy) and practical (specific aspects – special care) of Nursing.

Prof. Silviya Borisova is a part of the editorial board of Health care journal, as well as of the International Advisory Board of Scientific electronic journal "Health Academy Kastamonu", Kastamonu University and University of Health Sciences Journal of Nursing, Istanbul, Turkey.